

December 14, 2011

Dear Parents,

Sorry this letter is getting to you a day late, I was out of town and did not have internet access. This is the last week before break and on Friday 7th grade will be having a Christmas party, white elephant gift exchange, and a movie during the last hour of the day. There will be a sign up sheet for snacks outside of my room today.

6th grade

This week we will continue with the French Revolution unit, and we will pick back up with it after break. On Wednesday they will be assigned to draw a picture of each of the estates (in packet) and write a sentence about each. On Friday they will bring home a review sheet that they will need to look over during the break.

7th grade

In social studies we will finish WWI and create a study/review guide for over the break. The test will not be until the following Tuesday after break so that we can review when we get back. They will need to study the guide over the break a few times. Yesterday they were assigned to write an explanation of their favorite station that they completed yesterday. This will be due tomorrow.

In core they have just completed a paper on things that annoy them, and will be writing about their favorite holiday memory this week. They will have the last page in their packet due on Friday before the party starts.

8th grade

We are finishing the Cold War unit on Friday and they will be creating a rap song on key words of the vocabulary as their final. This will all be done in class on Friday, but they do need to have 20+ vocabulary words written down by then. They will not have homework over break, and when we return we will start our unit on Civil Rights.

Sincerely,

Erin Puccio
